I feel energy in loving spirit, and my career goals are achieved in joy.

There might be an important job objective that I have in mind, but it may seem too challenging to achieve. I can make plans about accomplishing it with logic and reasoning, discuss it with others and do research to gather facts. Yet, my idea might not be moving forward as planned.

Something that is critical to realizing my career dreams is feeling – feeling added to the facts about my goal. I open to my feelings in daily meditation, and I add them to my knowledge. Creator God, expressing as divine spirit within, leads me to the fulfillment of my dream.

My career goals are realized in the loving energy and passion of divine spirit.

"The more intensely we feel about an idea or a goal, the more assuredly the idea, buried deep in our subconscious, will direct us along the path to its fulfillment." – Earl Nightingale
